

Celebrity Rides: Hollywood's Speeding Bullitt

SHOW DESCRIPTION:

DIY Network's hit series Celebrity Rides is back with its hottest build ever! Over four half hour episodes, DIY Network recreates one of Hollywood's most famous cars: a 1968 GT Fastback Mustang made famous by the movie Bullitt. Chad McQueen, son of Hollywood legend Steve McQueen, teams up with Gateway Classic Mustang to build his version of the car that set the standard for Hollywood muscle. The series also covers the historical aspect of this famous Hollywood icon through the use of interviews, McQueen family photos and scenes from the now infamous case scene in Bullitt. In the end there is no mistaking this car and what it represents: raw horsepower and the ultimate muscle car experience!
