

Will Thiessen (left) be impressed?

SUNDAY 9/6

HGTV Design Star

★★★★☆

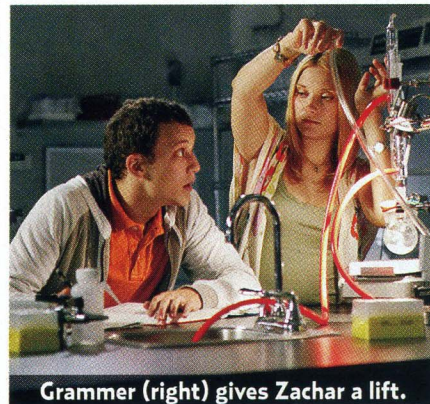

On the penultimate episode of the talent contest, the top three finalists must each create a spiffy space for the likes of Kathy Griffin (who wants an office that oozes "Zen"), Tiffani Thiessen (who requests a guest bedroom with sustainable furniture) and Jason Priestley (he and his wife crave a "beachy" nursery for their newborn boy). Watching contestants hunt for the right fabric, even for celebs, isn't always riveting — and Star's own look could benefit from a bigger budget. Still, tension and creativity abound in this pleasant time-passer. (HGTV, 10 P.M.)

MONDAY 8/31

Greek

★★★★☆

As the effervescent comedy picks up from June's cliffhanger, sorority honcho Casey (the shining Spencer Grammer), now single, resumes her quest to land sexy slacker Cappie (Scott Michael Foster). Meanwhile, her egghead brother, Rusty (Jacob Zachar), distracted by love, faces a D in chemistry. That all may sound like slight stuff, but Greek's merry-go-round of likable characters, heart-tugging dialogue and tingly campus romance (a secret gay coupling included) proves to be as enjoyable and spicy a mix as ever. (ABC Family, 9 P.M.)
